JUSTICE LEAGUE

NOT ANOTHER CRISIS

Kal-El of this world will be helpful. His display of strength is more impressive than even other Supermen. He will be a useful asset. But he will mourn this world first.

I wonder what the point is. The stories, the fights, the sacrifices. All of it to a meaningless end. Not even I could have saved them. And now their stories are over.

If they were ever truly told.

It is not for me to say.

This war is far from over. My enemy is faceless, he has destroyed more than one world. it hides it's face behind a robot conquerer.

But I will find him. I will face him. And I will have the strongest prepared to stand with me.

Until then... Worlds will fall.

I only hope yours is not one of them.
